

Program

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION
OF THE
AMERICAN
CATHOLIC SOCIOLOGICAL SOCIETY

★

St. John's College
1027 Superior Avenue
Cleveland, Ohio

★

December 28, 29, 30, 1953

MONDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1953

- 9:00 a.m. Mass. St. John's Cathedral, 9th and Superior.
- 10:00 a.m. Registration.
- 10:30 a.m. Topic: Population Problems.
Chairman: Rev. Bernard G. Mulvaney, C.S.V., The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.
Rev. Wm. J. Gibbons, S.J., Loyola College, Baltimore, Maryland. "An Examination of Catholic Opinions and Responsibilities with Reference to Population Problems."
Max Lacroix, New York. "The Contribution of Migration to the Solution of Population Problems."
- 12:00 a.m. Meeting of Committees of ACSS.
- 1:00 p.m. General Meeting.
Chairman: Rev. Ralph A. Gallagher, S.J., Loyola University, Chicago, Ill.
Welcome by Right Reverend Robert B. Navin, President, St. John's College.
Presidential address by Rev. Joseph P. Fitzpatrick, S.J., Fordham University, New York, N. Y.
Address by the Honorary President, Most Reverend Edwin V. O'Hara, D.D., Kansas City, Mo.
- 3:00 p.m. Topic: Migration and Cultural Assimilation.
Chairman: Dr. Rudolph Morris, Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wis.
Dr. Clarence Senior, Office of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, New York, N. Y. "The Assimilation of the Puerto Ricans."
Dr. Grace Jaffe, Barat College, Lake Forest, Ill. "The Assimilation of the Mexicans in Southwestern United States."
Rev. Stanislaus Sypek, Emmanuel College, Boston, Mass. "Polish Displaced Persons and Earlier Polish Immigrants."
Mr. Frank Santopolo, Fordham University, New York, N. Y. "The Sociological Theory of Assimilation."